

Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them,
and he healed their sick.

Matthew 14:14

HOPE for ALL

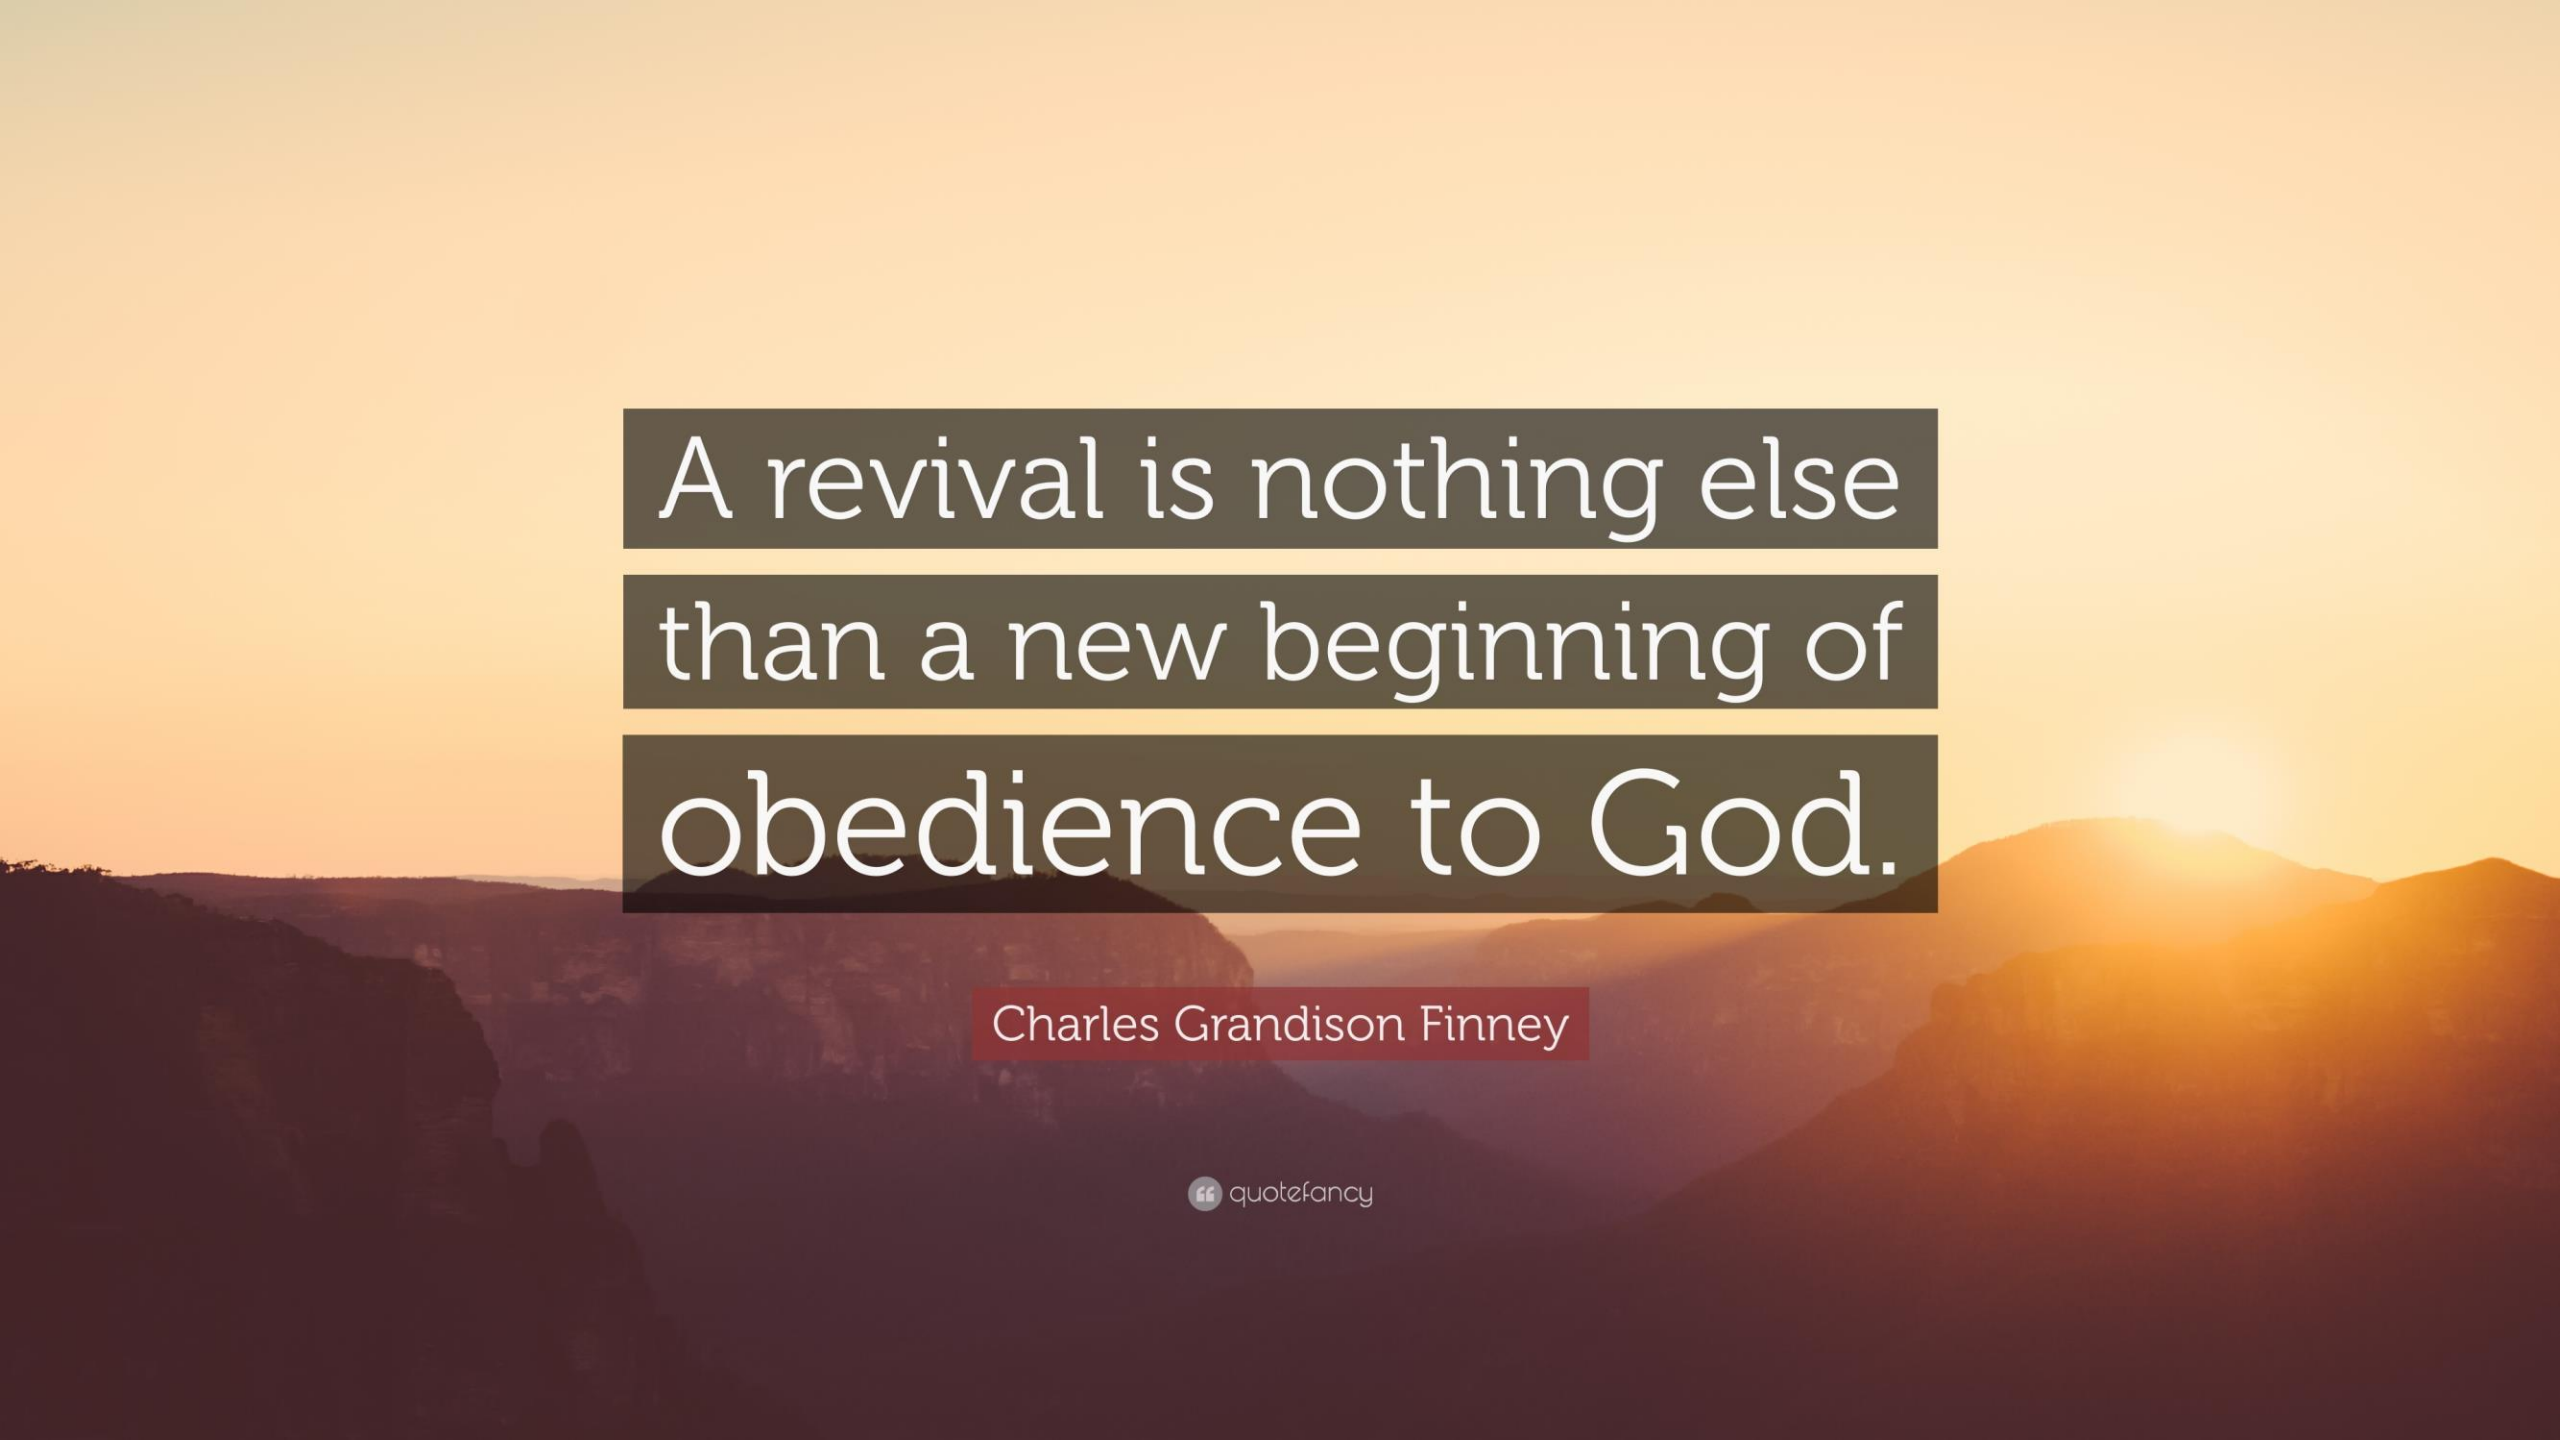

Hope for All depicts The Salvation Army reaching those who have been damaged and hurt by the circumstances of life, reaching in to pull their children and others from despair and hopelessness. This cartoon is a partial and/or reproduction of an original illustration from William Beebe's material used by The Salvation Army, which was used by The Salvation Army's mission to save the different nations of people's lives. The original illustration described this scene in the language of the day as, 'In the night we, surrounded by the light of the lighthouse, see in our darkness of sin and poverty who are seeking in vain, but when the light of the lighthouse is brought up to us.' Artwork by Michael Parker (1914).

Revival is a renewed conviction of sin and repentance, followed by an intense desire to live in obedience to God. It is giving up one's will to God in deep humility.

A scenic landscape at sunset or sunrise. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden glow over the scene. In the foreground, there's a dirt road with a large, shallow puddle reflecting the sky. To the left of the road, there's a field of tall, dry grass. To the right, a steep, grassy hillside rises. The sky is filled with soft, wispy clouds, and the overall atmosphere is peaceful and contemplative.

Any method of evangelism will work – if God is in it.

The background of the image is a close-up photograph of a rock face covered in fossilized ammonites. The fossils are light-colored, showing the characteristic spiral patterns of these ancient sea creatures. The rock itself is a warm, yellowish-brown color with some texture and shadows.

What we need is a fresh vision of the Cross. And may that mighty, all-embracing love of His be no longer a fitful, wavering influence in our lives, but the ruling passion of our souls.
